Prospective Transfer Student Release Form
for Possible Scholarship Consideration

The LSU School of Music honors the Code of Ethics established by the National Association of School of Music. It states that you will not consider a scholarship offer from any other NASM member institution without the express written consent of the music executive of the institution in which you are currently enrolled.

In accordance with the above statement, you are asked to complete Part A, then take the form to your music executive (Dean, Department Chair, Division Head, Assistant or Associate Dean for Undergraduate Studies, etc.) and ask them to complete Part B. No scholarship consideration will be given until this form is received.
